Since 3200 BC, Paros has suffered conquest after conquest by Cretans, Ionians, Arcadians, Macedonians and Romans. The translucent marble used for Venus de Milo came from the island. Come to Paros today, and you will find a rich legacy of the past, plenty of sunshine, hundreds of secluded beaches, a vibrant nightlife and Yria Resort close to the capital, Parikia, just 100 metres from the beach. Yria is modelled on a village of dazzling Cycladic houses decorated with the crimson shock of bougainvillea. White-washed suites, maisonettes and well-kept gardens are spread elegantly about the estate. The interiors have the glow of cosmopolitan chic: golden wood patinas, the luscious flow of fabrics caught by the breeze and expensive ornaments. Bar Selini obliges with tingling iced cocktails and Nefeli serves the gourmet cuisine of the Mediterranean. But the colours painted by the setting sun will be your abiding memory.

Location: The hotel is located on the west side of the island at the Parasporos Bay. 2.5 km from the island port & main town Paroikia. 10 minutes by car from Aliko & Pounda Village.

Directions: From Paros airport - Turn left and keep straight on the main road direction to Paroikia for 7 km. When the road sign indicates at the left side "Parasporos Beach", turn to the left and drive for 200 metres on a country road until you reach Yria Hotel. From Paros Port - Take the main road direction to Pounda-Alyki.
